ISSUES ARE MOMENTOUS

Big Legal Battle On in Full Blast.

Naone Case Held Up With Technical Pleadings.

Alleged Incendiary's Trial—Time for E. S. Boyd's Appeal. Court Items.

There were five de facto Justices of the Supreme Court sitting yesterday to hear a case, though the tribunal has but three de jure members according to the Organic Act. As, however, only three Justices will decide on the case no irregularity was committed.

The question at issue was whether Circuit Judges at Chambers have any jurisdiction in probate and equity. It came up on a writ of prohibition to stop Judge Gear from holding any further proceedings in the matter of the estate of Annie T. K. Parker, a minor. Chief Justice Frear, Justice Hatch and Circuit Judge De Bolt constituted the court proper, the last-named in place of Justice Hartwell, disqualified. Circuit Judges Robinson of the First, and Matthewman of the Third Circuit were seated at a table in front to hear the argument. These two Circuit Judges were invited to attend for a particular reason. They had sat as substitute Justices of the Supreme Court on the Walluku water equity appeal case decided the other day. After the decision in that case was rendered, a point was raised as to the jurisdiction of the Circuit Judge who heard the case below for signing the decree made imperative by the decision of the appellate court. This point was raised on the same jurisdictional grounds as those presented in the Parker case. The attorneys in both cases are partly the same. While the question in the Walluku case is to be submitted on briefs, it is the decision in the Parker case which will control further procedure in the other case.

S. M. Ballou opened the attack on the jurisdiction of Circuit Judges at Chambers in argument for the writ of prohibition. His speech before and after the noon recess occupied three hours and then he reserved further remarks for his reply to opposing counsel. J. A. Magoon began the argument.

THE TRUTH ALWAYS.

"When you are in doubt tell the truth." It was an experienced old diplomat who said this to a beginner in the work. It may pass in some things, but not in business. Fraud and deception are often profitable so long as concealed; yet detection is certain sooner or later; then comes the smash-up and the punishment. The best and safest way is to tell the truth all the time. Thus you make friends that stick by you, and a reputation that is always worth twenty shillings to the pound everywhere your goods are offered for sale. We are able modestly to affirm, that it is on this basis that the world-wide popularity of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION rests. The people have discovered that this medicine is exactly what it is said to be, and that it does what we have always declared it will do. Its nature also has been frankly made known. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. A combination of supreme excellence and medicinal merit. Nothing has been so successful in Anemia, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Influenza, Loss of Flesh and Wasting Diseases, Weakness and Low Nervous Tone, and all complaints caused by Impure Blood. Dr. Austin D. Irvine, of Canada, says: "I have used it in cases where cod liver oil was indicated but could not be taken by the patient, and the results following were very gratifying." It cannot deceive or disappoint you, is effective from the first dose and comes to the rescue of those who have received no benefit from any other treatment. It represents the dawn of progress. Sold by all chemists everywhere.

against the writ shortly before the court rose for the day at four o'clock. Other counsel in attendance throughout the day were W. O. Smith, D. L. Withington, L. J. Warren and R. B. Anderson.

The issues hanging on this case are momentous, involving the validity of equity and probate judgments and acts ever since the coming into force of the Organic Act on June 14, 1900, also all decrees of divorce since divorce was placed in the jurisdiction of Circuit Judges at Chambers by legislation of 1903. It is not exaggeration to say that the material interests embraced in adjudications now imperiled amount to millions of dollars.

NAONE MURDER CASE.

Philip Hoonanao Naone was brought to the bar yesterday morning before Judge Gear, to plead to the indictment for murdering his wife on the night of Saturday, October 8.

J. J. Dunne, counsel for defendant, interposed a plea in abatement and a motion to quash the indictment. The court set the motion for argument at 12 noon today.

The plea in abatement first denies the jurisdiction of the court over either the subject matter or the person. Most of the remainder of the plea is devoted to an attempt to show that the grand jury finding the indictment was only "a pretended grand jury," being organized under an unconstitutional law. It is also argued that the grand jury was not qualified to act because of that same law. Further, it is declared that no offense against any law of the Territory of Hawaii is charged in the indictment, also that two separate and distinct charges of murder in the first degree are sought to be charged against the defendant in the indictment. The motion to quash is drawn in precisely the same terms as the plea in abatement.

AN ALLEGED FIREBUG.

Chang Ching was put on trial before Judge Gear yesterday morning for malicious burning. Deputy Attorney General Prosser appeared for the Territory and J. W. Cathcart for the defendant. The following jury was empaneled after two excuses for cause and three peremptory challenges by defendant: E. J. Stone, E. J. Walker, H. A. Parmelee, Jessin Andrade, J. A. Lawelawe, James Brown, C. P. McVrfield, A. Nelson, H. P. Kaohi, W. L. Fletcher, E. Benson and George Dillingham. Defendant was indicted at the June term for malicious burning in the first degree by setting fire to a building belonging to Lai Chan Shee, on the west side of Nuuanu street between Bereania and Kukui streets, in the night time of May 8, 1904, the building with its contents being then of the value of $1000.

Soon after the opening of court in the afternoon the trial was abruptly checked by objections from both sides to the Japanese interpreting of George Yamada. There was agreement on the acceptability of C. Shiozawa, but his services could not be obtained at the time. The trial was therefore continued until this morning.

DAMAGE SUIT.

Ching Ho Chong has brought a suit for $5000 damages against Wong Hing, sometimes called Ah Sam, for personal assault committed on March 1, 1904. Plaintiff says he is a storekeeper and 55 years of age, and defendant a restaurant keeper about forty years of age. It is alleged that defendant assaulted plaintiff with his fists and an umbrella besides severely kicking him, from the effects of which maltreatment plaintiff was prevented for thirty days from attending to any business and is now, on account of diminished earning capacity caused by the injuries described, unable to earn anything for the support of himself, his wife and his family of four children. J. J. Dunne is attorney for plaintiff.

EXECUTIONS.

Deputy Sheriff Albert McGurn has made return of execution in the case of Frank J. Turk vs. Estrella Turk, to the effect that he had taken from Estrella and given to Frank a certain bay mare named Westerla, together with one canopy top buggy, one set of harness, one lap robe and one lamp (broken), two broken lamps and side curtains, thus fully satisfying the writ.

Deputy Sheriff Wm. E. Saffery returns execution in the case of G. W. Burgess, M. D., vs. Mrs. Henry Gynn for $115.53 as partly satisfied in the remittance to court of $59.80 from proceeds of real estate at Waihee, Maui. No other property of defendant could be found in the Second Judicial Circuit.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Robinson allows E. S. Boyd and his attorney twenty days from the receipt of the transcript of evidence within which to present a bill of exceptions to his conviction and sentence for embezzlement.

In Superintendent Holloway's suit on the bond of Vivian Richardson, defaulted clerk of Honolulu Water Works, Judge Robinson has granted plaintiff an extension of ten days for serving his amended complaint.

The Puna Sugar Co. foreclosure case is set for trial before Judge De Bolt on Saturday at 10 a. m.

A LITTLE DEAL IN OFFICE FURNITURE

J. F. Morgan and D. L. Akwai are to find out in court Monday, which one is the owner of certain articles of office furniture. It seems that some time ago Willie Crawford gave D. L. Akwai a chattel mortgage on a roller-top desk, typewriter and sundry other things. Akwai neglected to have the mortgage recorded. Crawford is then said to have sold and delivered the merchandise to J. F. Morgan. Akwai wants to know where he comes in and has had a summons issued, returnable Monday, for Morgan to appear in court.

Scrofula Spreads

ALARM CAUSED BY AN INVASION OF ULCEROUS SORES.

Perplexity of the Doctors in a Typical and Serious Case Relieved by an Important Discovery.

The fear which is justly aroused by the appearance of a disease with such fatal tendencies as scrofula, will be relieved by a statement of a recent remarkable cure. Mr. Thomas F. Brown, of the Hume Carriage Company, Amesbury, Mass., says:

"About two years ago I was affected with a scrofulous disease which spread over my whole body. I became greatly alarmed and consulted physicians in Amesbury and in Newburyport. They told me I had a case of scrofula, and that I would have to take the greatest care to avert a fatal result. They pronounced my blood to be in a bad condition and said a long time would be necessary to put me in a healthy state. 'There was chronic inflammation all over my body wherever the disease had spread; there would be a discharge of yellow-colored pus where the skin would break and leave an ulcerlike sore. These sores would dry up for a while only to break and discharge again.'"

"The medicines which the physicians prescribed had no effect in checking the disease and I was in a most miserable state of discouragement. One day I heard the doctor say that there was danger of the disease terminating in consumption. Then I began to lose all hope. 'One day, however, as I lay in bed reading a newspaper, I read an article recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People very highly for diseases of the blood, and, as the doctor's treatment during the preceding three months had done me no good, I decided to stop it and take the pills.'"

"After I had taken three boxes I saw that the inflammation was going down and that there were fewer sores. I realized that I was improving and I continued to use the pills until I had taken eight boxes. Then I was entirely cured. I am now enjoying good health, have a keen appetite and can do as big a day's work as at any time before I was stricken down, and I firmly believe that I owe my present excellent physical condition to Dr. Williams' 'Pink Pills.' This great blood remedy is sold by all druggists throughout the world."

An Enjoyable Outing.

The most attractive day's outing is that afforded by the excursion down the railroad line. The HALEIWA LIMITED, a first class train, leaves Honolulu every Sunday morning at 8:22 o'clock making the run in two hours, the rate for round trip being only $2.00. From 10:22 a. m. until 8:10 p. m. is spent at the beautiful HOTEL HALEIWA, with fresh and salt water bathing, tennis, golf, drives and walks, shooting or fishing, and you are back in town at 10:10 o'clock in the evening.

KAIHUE IS HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Kaihue, the cowboy who was leading the cow that knocked William Daly down on Richards street last Tuesday and thereby caused his death the following morning, was arrested yesterday pursuant to the verdict of a coroner's jury. He will be prosecuted for manslaughter. As reported in yesterday's Advertiser, the jury found that Kaihue was responsible for the fatality through the careless manner in which the animal was being led through the streets.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth swore out the warrant under which Kaihue was arrested. A preliminary examination of the defendant, on the charge of manslaughter in the first degree, will be held before District Magistrate Lindsay this morning.

GRIOT OF JUSTICE IN POLICE COURT

Leong Chee, charged with malicious injury, was discharged. Lau Gin, on being fined $25 and costs for having che fa tickets in his possession, appealed. Katsuki and Chew Sin paid $10 each for heedless driving and assault and battery respectively. Ah On and Nat Blatt, the two caddies, received a lecture and were allowed to go.

Hop Sing and Yee Fong are summoned to appear this morning to answer to the charge of keeping restaurants without a license. C. C. Von Hamm will have to tell why he has not taken out a lodging house license.
